Ronald Lee Partridge

Ronald Lee Partridge of Congers, NY, passed away peacefully, with his family by his side, on Wednesday May 9, 2012. Ron was born in Nyack Hospital on March 23, 1945 and lived all his life in Rockland County.

Ron spent his early years living at ARCADIA, his Grandparents farm in West Nyack. He always enjoyed nature and spent much of his free time fishing. At about eight years of age, he moved with his family to the building his Dad built in West Nyack (where the Cone Zone is).

He graduated from St. Anthony's and later Haverstraw High School. After graduation, Ron bravely joined the Navy during the Vietnam Era and served on the USS Canopus from 1964 until 1970. He later worked as a landscaper and a bartender. For many years, Ron coached the West Nyack Inn Women's Softball Team after spending five years coaching the "Momsy Misfits" softball team. He was an avid Yankee fan. His entire life, he found peace and tranquility fishing. He belonged to St. Paul's Catholic Church in Congers; was an active member of The Knights of Columbus and a member of several Veterans Groups throughout Rockland. In recent years he also participated in walks for Hospice, MS and Breast Cancer. He was always there for those who needed a helping hand. Ron is survived by his 4 sisters, Sandra, Patricia McIntosh, Marie (William) Temple, Lillian (Tim) Erwin, 8 brothers, Robert (Kathy), James (Renee), William (Rose), Richard, Michael, Dennis (Pam), George, John Glenn (Tamara), and many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. He is also survived by his two aunts, Mary Nelson and Gloria Biederman and many cousins.

Ronald was predeceased by his father, Gerard Stanley Partridge Sr. in 1988, his mother Alveria Pezzella Partridge in 2004 and brothers G. Stanley Jr. and Paul Sr.
